Joseph G. Twomey has been a member of Hansen Dordell since 1998. In that time he has handled hundreds of cases to successful resolution. Joe has experience trying cases to juries, judges, and arbitrators and relishes the competition of the courtroom. He is passionate about obtaining the best possible result for his clients, whether it is through a pretrial settlement or by way of a trial or arbitration. Working together with clients to achieve the desired resolution is Joe's favorite part of the practice of law.

Joe focuses his practice in the areas of workers' compensation and civil litigation defense. He frequently lectures in the area of Minnesota workers' compensation in client and continuing legal education seminars.

Prior to joining Hansen Dordell, Joe clerked for Ramsey County District Court Judge John T. Finley, where he was able to observe firsthand how the legal process worked. This experience fueled his interest in trial work.

When Joe is not working, he enjoys reading, running, traveling, and spending time with his wife and two young daughters.
