“More than understanding any individual case or area of law, high quality legal services requires an understanding of your client’s goals.” Sean Taylor

After earning his law degree, Sean B. Taylor served as a law clerk for District Court Judge Vicki Landwehr in St. Cloud before moving to Ann Arbor with his Fiancée, now wife, for two years. While in Michigan, he was an associate at a general commercial litigation firm, before returning to Minnesota. Prior to joining Hansen Dordell, Sean worked as an associate at a boutique firm in Bloomington, primarily focused on construction and employment litigation.

While his family roots can be traced back to Minnesota, Sean grew up overseas, the son of American expats. As the son of a pilot, Sean was raised with traveling the world as the general norm. Although the days of free flights have long passed, Sean remains passionate about visiting other cultures and traveling whenever possible.
